CMS is somewhat of a hidden gem in Livermore. It has strong leadership, staff, and a diversity of students which include special needs students. Staff cares about the students and goes above and beyond to ensure student success.

I've had two children go through CMS under the leadership of two different Principals. Each child was interested in different aspects of school life and they each found what they needed to grow and develop.

CMS offers what it can in terms of extracurricular activities. Mostly these are in the form of sports.
